In Collection 10 — 0 — 10

Attributed by - W.H. Sheldon - Doughty - Crosby

Notes: (1) Much sought after in any condition.

(2) Not many exist in top condition, and hard to come

* (3) First authorized coinage of the U.S.

(4) Many counterfeits, such as "Smith Counterfeits"

(5) A "strawberry variety" of which only a very few exist is much sought after and is the rarest variety of all the large cents.

(6) Comes with vine & bar edge, + lettered edge.

(7) The chain cent was very unpopular and hastily withdrawn. Called "Liberty in Chains" and it finally gave way to the Liberty Cap (Apparently out of sympathy for the French Revolution)

Notes (Rarest of the CENT date)

Number Minted = 904,585 3 Varieties

One Major Type - Draped Bust.

Major Varieties - (1) Over '98 (2) Perfect Date.

Attributed by - Doughty - Clapp - Sheldon.

Very Rare as a date - A very much sought after cent in any condition and extremely rare in better than fine.

Usually missing from the general run of date collectors. None known in strictly uncirculated condition.

Altho number minted is high - but probably in error and included some 98's, or 1800's. What happened to the 99 cents?

Notes

Number Minted - 333,456 Varieties 5

Main Varieties - (1) Large date (2) Small Date.

Attributed by - Andrews - Newcomb.

Scarce as a date. The last year of the big cents and a year that saw millions of them destroyed by melting down & making the smaller ones. Thus this date had been minted, which number would be low for a single year now-a-days. If we had them all in circulation there wouldn't be enough for one each for every person in the U.S.

157,192,069.

Dear Mr. Bitler,

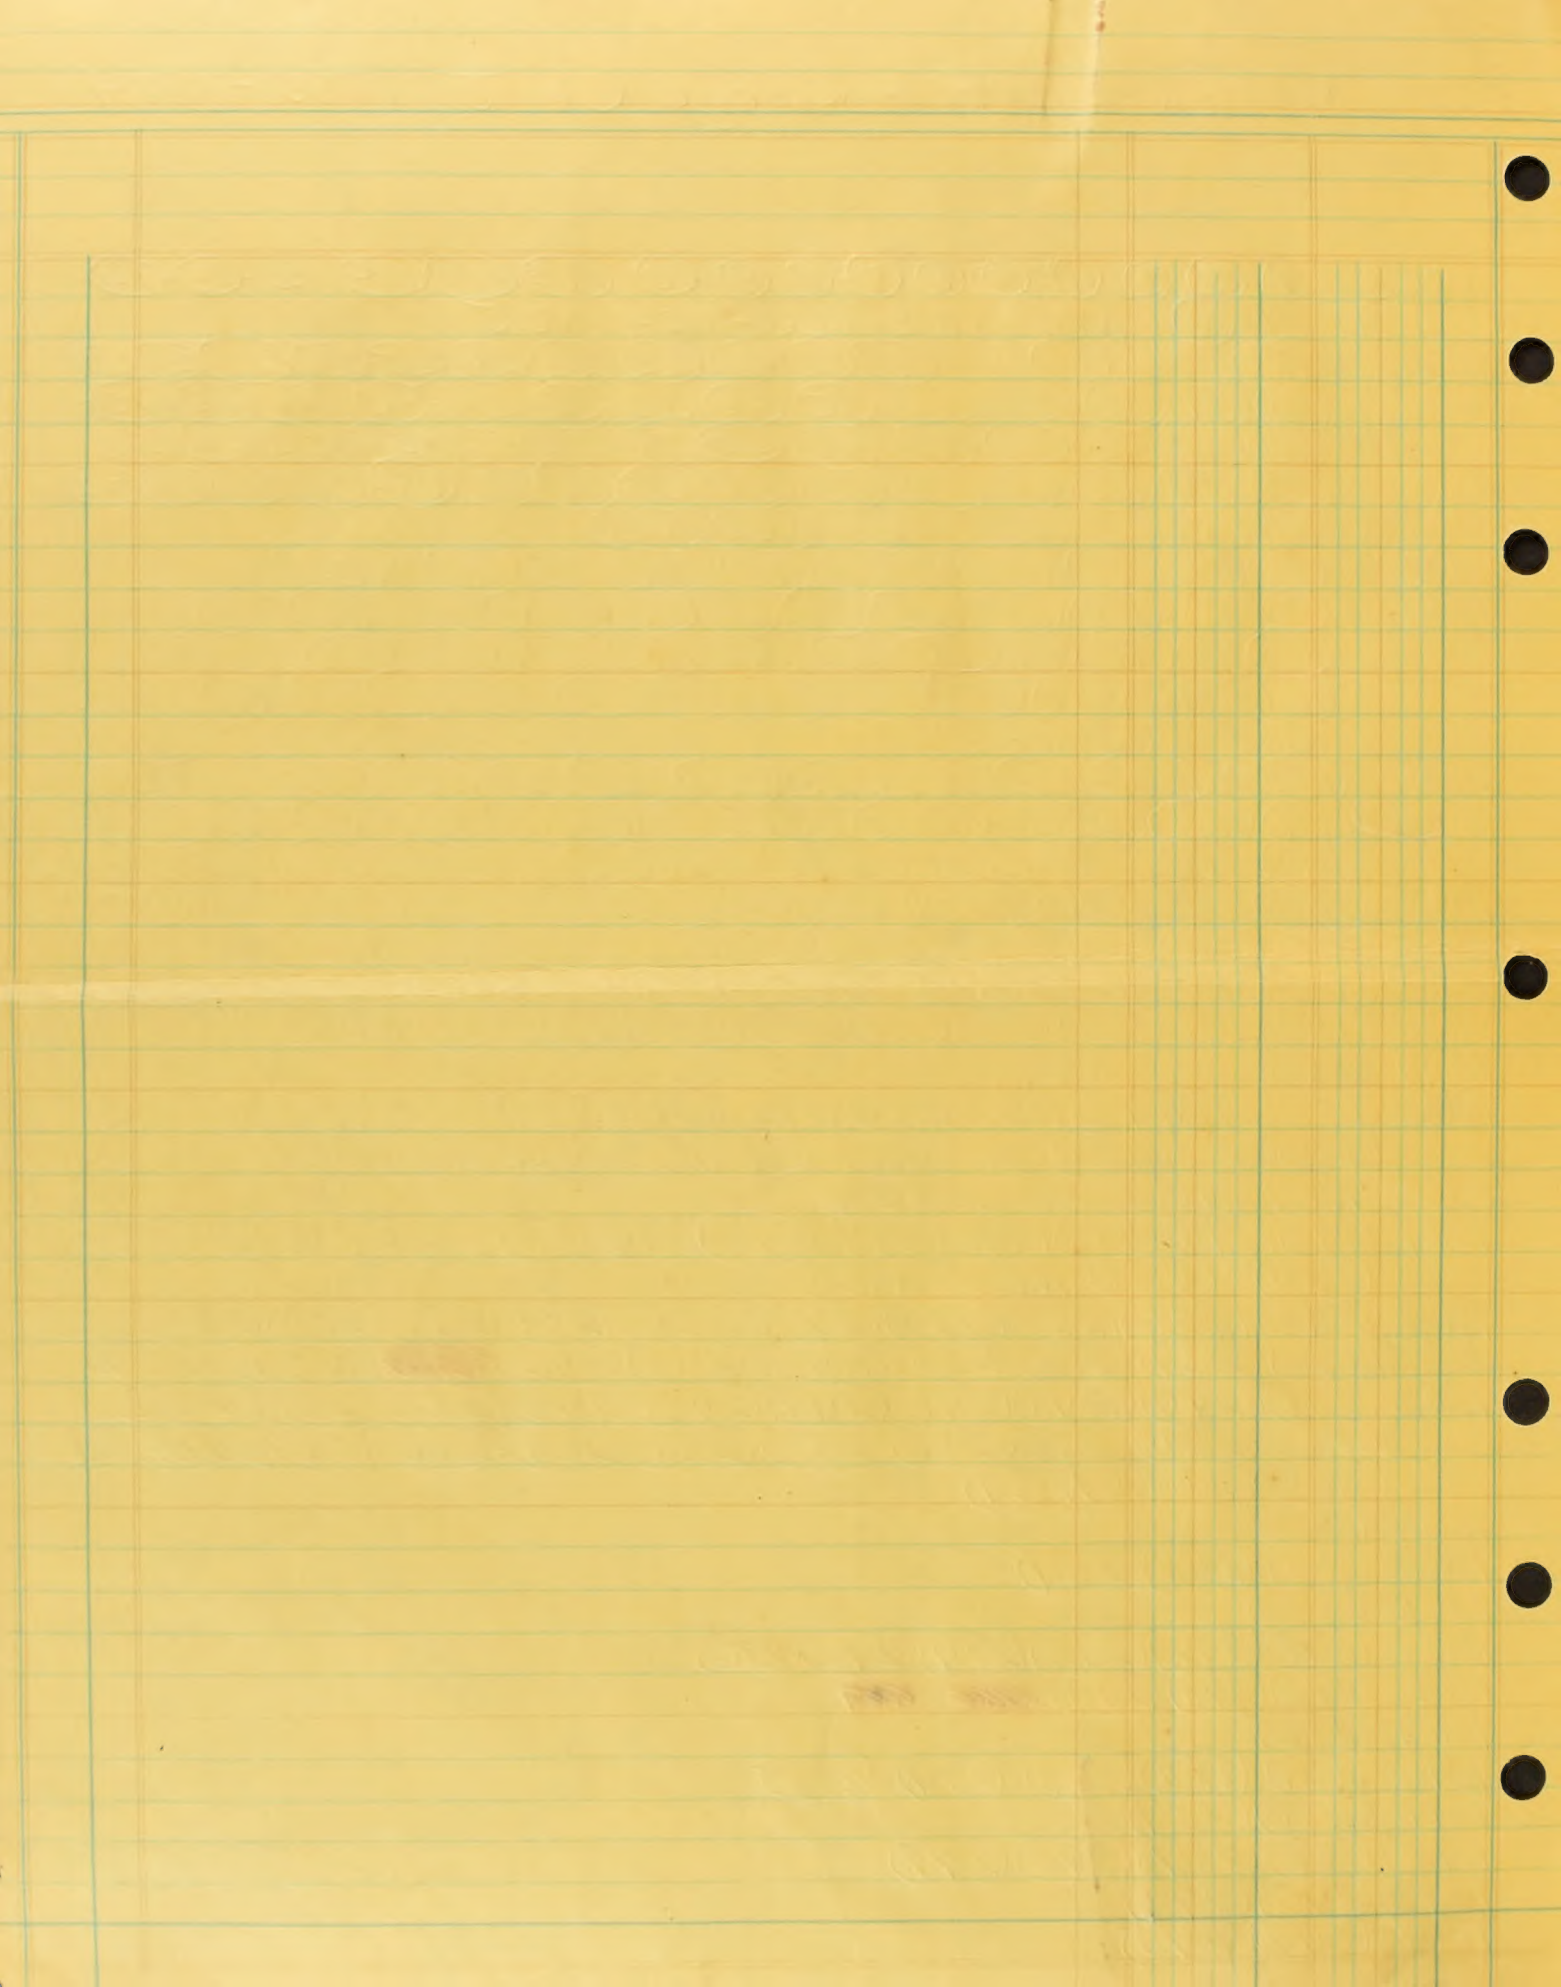

Mr. G. B. Hull forwarded your letter to me. I am not officially a dealer, but a mechanical engineer. My specialty is gold and all scarce coins, especially scarce Lincoln and indian cents. Last week for example, I was fortunate enough to purchase (40) 1908-S 1¢, (30) 1909-S 1¢ ind., (50) 1909-S Lincolns and (12) 1931-S's in one lot.

I have a few 1914-D's in fine (full wheat) and get the other dates in from time to time. Obviously, I can sell below retail prices and will gladly ship coins to you for your inspection.

What condition do you want the large 1¢ in? I currently have an 1809 in VG, but may move it shortly. I do get better grade large 1¢ in from time to time. I have a nice pair of 1837 (1) plain hair cord, small letters ^{XF} and an 1837 beaded hair cord ^{XF} or perhaps AU. What can you pay on these? Will ship for inspection - am holding for you. Ed
